

WORKSHEET 1: Everyday Chance Events

Name: _____ Date: _____ **

Circle Yes if the event involves chance.

1. Will it rain tomorrow? → Yes / No
2. Will a dog fly? → Yes / No
3. Will a spinner land on red? → Yes / No
4. Will I do homework tonight? → Yes / No
5. Will the sun shine tomorrow? → Yes / No
6. Will I go to bed late? → Yes / No
7. Will a coin show heads? → Yes / No
8. Will I see my friend at school? → Yes / No
9. Will I grow taller this year? → Yes / No
10. Will I see a rainbow in the sky? → Yes / No

11–15: Fill in the blank

Write chance or no chance.

1. An event that may or may not happen has .
2. An event that must happen has .
3. An event that cannot ever happen has .
4. A coin flip has .
5. Walking to school has .

16: Circle and write

1. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will sleep tonight because .
2. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will see the sun tomorrow because .
3. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will see a rainbow in my classroom because .
4. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will see a dog in the park because .
5. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will see a dinosaur today because .

WORKSHEET 2: Likely and Unlikely

Name: _____ Date: _____

1–10: Circle the word

Circle likely or unlikely for each event.

1. I will brush my teeth today. (likely / unlikely)
2. I will see a rainbow in class today. (likely / unlikely)
3. I will eat lunch. (likely / unlikely)
4. I will see a flying car. (likely / unlikely)
5. I will see my teacher at school. (likely / unlikely)
6. I will ride a dinosaur. (likely / unlikely)
7. I will hear a bird outside. (likely / unlikely)
8. I will win a big prize today. (likely / unlikely)
9. I will sleep tonight. (likely / unlikely)
10. I will see a dragon in my garden. (likely / unlikely)

11–15: True or False

Write T or F.

1. “Likely” means it usually happens.
2. “Unlikely” means it rarely happens.
3. “Unlikely” means it never happens.
4. Both likely and unlikely events are possible.
5. Impossible events are the same as unlikely events.

16. Read each sentence and circle likely or unlikely, then write “because...” to finish the sentence.

6. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will ride my scooter today because .
7. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will see a rainbow in the sky because .
8. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will eat dinner tonight because .
9. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will see a flying car this week because .
10. It is (likely / unlikely) that I will see my teacher at school because .

Worksheet 3: Certain and Impossible

Name: _____ Date: _____

1–10: Circle the word

Circle certain or impossible.

1. I will grow older this year. (certain / impossible)
2. A dog will fly. (certain / impossible)
3. I will see the sun today. (certain / impossible)
4. I will see a pink elephant in the sky. (certain / impossible)
5. I will breathe today. (certain / impossible)
6. I will see a rainbow in class today. (certain / impossible)
7. I will see the moon tonight. (certain / impossible)
8. I will see a unicorn in my yard. (certain / impossible)
9. I will wake up tomorrow. (certain / impossible)
10. I will see a rainbow in my bedroom. (certain / impossible)

11–15: Fill in the blank

Write certain or impossible.

1. "I will grow older" is .
2. "I will see a flying car outside" is .
3. "I will rest tonight" is .
4. "I will see a rainbow on my plate" is .
5. "I will see the sky" is .

16. Write each number under Certain, Likely, Unlikely or Impossible.

1. I will eat lunch today.
2. I will see a rainbow in the sky.
3. I will grow older this year.
4. I will see a flying car.
5. I will brush my teeth tonight.
6. I will see the sun today.
7. I will see a unicorn in my garden.